What's On In Landbeach - November 2013

In brighter intervals, there were some very attractive cloud formations, and many evenings the moon managed to peep through. Items for Dec by Wed 20th Nov, please. Farmland Museum and Denny Abbey, Waterbeach.

It has been put to the Parish Council that we might support the Farmland Museum and Denny Abbey by making a small donation, maybe 50p per household. In return, parishioners would be able to purchase a reduced price season ticket for visiting with their family or even on their own for a peaceful afternoon out. It is a lovely spot and there are very good facilities for children.
For further information see http://www.dennyfarmlandmuseum.org.uk
The Museum closes at the end of October but will be open on 7th December for the annual Christmas event. It will re-open on April 1st 2014

Tithe Barn.

Landbeach Tithe Barn - which belongs to South Cambs District Council and has been leased to The Landbeach Society since 1975 - is around 450 years old and is unique in the country, being so intact and unmodified. However, funds are now needed to restore and maintain it.
There is a meeting at SCDC on October 22nd where it will be discussed and we hope that we will be given more time to find a way of securing its future as part of our village heritage.
We hope to provide more positive information in the next What's On.
